

Despite trying to be organised I am not at times, this was the case when I realised my business insurance was due to run out the next day. I called Simon at Ryburne Brokers and was given a competitive deal compared to what I had been quoted by my existing insurer. They were polite and efficient and did not moan about the lack of time I gave them to arrange it. The payment was due over a weekend and I forgot to get hold of Simon before I left on Friday to arrange payment, much to my surprise he had paid for the policy for me knowing that I needed cover before I got back to work on Monday. Simon went above and beyond what he needed to, I would recommend him and Ryburne Brokers to anyone.

Many thanks
Simon Gough
